Name	LEGINOST BURDING			Position	20001	30000
Busi	Business	Date of		Nature of Interest	100
Name	Activity	Appointment	Date of Cessation	יימימי כי טו ווויכורטי		Details
HOYOUNG GOLD SKYS HIVE	Sky Hire	AS agringo	med	Se has I have	TIME CIVE BO	Hustrians Ce
	,	,		(
						15
e

A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person

An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member.

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations which may have dealings with the school

Signed

Date

Page1

	Transation With	Nature of Transaction	Details	A Action Special
Name	Relationship		Details	Actual cost of transaction $(£)$ Market Value $(£)$
		56
\
`

11/07/2018 11:54

Signed

				-		Name
	81		7.5	Name	BL
				Activity	Business	SARAH SANDERS
	2			Appointment	Date of	KS, vate of Cessation
					Nature of Interest	Position
						DICE
				סכנמווט	Details	PRINCIPA
						,

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations which may have dealings with the school

Signed

Date	Signed			W.				Name	Transation With	Related Party		Name
81.01.8		2						Kelationship				- 1
3	1			2	2				Nature of Transaction		O)
						\			Details transaction (£) warket value (Actual cost of 08/10/2018 12:20

Name SANSE NACOCNOLO	5		Position	PRINCIPAL
Business	Date of		Nature of Interest	Details
Name Activity	Appointment	Date of Cessation		2010
27
	1			æ

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations which may have dealings with the school

Signed J-Novedos Odd

	Transation With Nature of Transaction Name Relationship	Name JANCE HYDONOR CO
	Details Actual cost of transaction (£) Market Value (£)	8

Signed

J-Merchandonerles

Date

8-10-18

Date	Signed		,				Ruth Eston	Manie		Related Party .	Name
21/01/11	To Ed						W.pe	Relationship	Transation With	Ruth Fator	TIM EATOZ
					9				Nature of Transaction
						NO LONGER WORKS	buth works as on the	2	Details
						woeks Here	schia carebat	transaction (£)	Actual cost of
		*		3				(£) Market Value (£)

					- 1	/	Name			Name
						(Activity	Business		なってのかい
	C#						Appointment	Date of
			·			·	Date of Cessation	_
				58	· ·		ייייייייי אייייייייייייייייייייייייייי	Nature of Interest	Position
			75				Details		Consumo of

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations

which may have dealings with the school

Signed

Date

Page1

_				4	4
	м	^	^	•	7
-		-		н.	-

Sheet2 Sheet3

Declaration of Business & Pecunian	y Interests)	12-
Name of Governor: Slee Ellis Name of School(s) associated with Governor: Role (co-opted/parent/staff):	quetton co-opted			Brooke We	Ston * m— Trust * $ _
Name of Business	Nature of Business	Nature of Interest	Date of Appointment or Acquisition	Date of Cessation of Interest	Date of Entry
1 0.7
About your spouse/partner/co-habitee	Employer and Nature of Employment	Trusteeship/Governorship/Other	Date of Appointment or Acquisition	Date of Cessation of Interest	Date of Entry
Spouse/partner/co-habitee:	N:\
Close relative 1:
Close relative 2:
A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse o 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for	r someone living with you, could benefit dire	ctly or indirectly from a decision, and you	pensation for damage do are aware of this. You s	one to your car whilst hould treat that person	parked on school n as if they were you.
An indirect pecuniary interest is where your emplo	oyer, or partner in a partnership, or a company cision. Example: The school agrees to let a fo	y in which you have shares, or a body of w ootball pitch to a club of which you are a n	hich you are a trustee or nember.	director or member, s	uch as a club, or A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held
	ared all beneficial interests which I or any			organisations
1 termy mat 1 dave deci		ve dealings with the school
	\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\		t	11.10.2	OLK
Signed:		1

				*	Name		Indiffe
					Activity	Business	THUC SAMUEN
	87				Appointment	Date of	_
					Date of Cessation
			٠		Nature of Interest		Position
					Details	GENER NEW	7

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations

which may have dealings with the school

Signed

Date

Page1

Related Parties Questionaire

Date	Signed							Name	Related Party .	Name
21/t/n	Only O	2				·	. Controlled	Transation With		from Jin
	5			8				Nature of Transaction	NIM	のなべてはく
		7		*			105	Details
						*	transaction (£)	Actual cost of
×			(e)		i.		(£) Warket Value (±)		я

Name SARAM BLOCK
Related Party
Transation With Name Relationship	Nature of Transaction Details Actual cost of transaction (£) Market Value (£)
Signed

	,		Name		Name
			Activity	Business	SUTUR BLOCK
			Appointment	Date of
		/	Date of Cessation
		•	יאמנמוב טו ווורבו בצר	Nature of Interest	Position
			Details		THACHER

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations

which may have dealings with the school

Page1

Signed

Date	Signed		3			-			Related Party	Name
	×					741		Tra Name	rty .	K OF
12/11	A				7			Transation With Relationship		Preston.
+ 1 8.								Nature of Transaction	×
							*	Details
							transaction (£)	Actual cost of
			•				IVIARKET VAIL		ς.

school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school.

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations

which may have dealings with the school

Signed

Signed . Date			Name	Name Related Party .
11/2/18			Transation With Relationship	MACIANNIA ZAZZI
			Nature of Transaction
			Details
			Actual cost of transaction (£)
6	3		Market Value (£)

	τ.					Name		Name
					32	Activity	Business	MANAMA ZAZZI
						Appointment	Date of
						Date of Cessation
		s				Nature of Interest	71	Position
						Details	Contract of the second	CHAIR OF GOVERNOVS

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations

which may have dealings with the school

Date

Signed

Page1

Related Party

		8.							Name
					200	70			Relationship	Transation With
•	-									Nature of Transaction
								N	T CALLS	Details
								transaction (£)	Actual cost of
			*		*		3 2 3	ĺ	Market Value (f)

Signed

Date

2016

	×						Name		Name
							Activity	Business	Stews Elvin
		•	1	25			Appointment	Date of
							Date of Cessation
					,		Nature of Interest		Position
	11			¥),(Details

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service. I certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations

which may have dealings with the school

Signed

8			¥		Name	В	Name
					Activity	Business
				0 :	Appointment	Date of
	2020	2			Date of Cessation	72+22-6
			V.			Nature of Interest	Position
	*				D C CALL	Details

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

l certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations which may have dealings with the school

Signed

-
Œ
-
ā
_
eq 0
_
$\overline{}$ യ
=
-
ie m
:=
V Έ
- P iñ
7.
₫
=
U \neg
=
a)
_
₹
7 ē

- Pance		Related Party .
	AVA 2	Actual cost of transaction (£)

\sim
P ia а æ [eq
_
-
ш ᇽ
=
ties
_
\mathcal{L} lest S
0 $\stackrel{\sim}{=}$
=
B
=
7 w

Related Darty	Name PETER
	(1040)
	Ц

						7 [
					NIC	No.
					MIC	Kelationsnip	Transation With
					N(C		Nature of Transaction
					MIC.		Details
					MIC	transaction (£)	Actual cost of
			*);		N 10	transaction (£) Warket value (±)

Signed

							Name
				V1C	Name		अवस्त्र
				NIC	Activity	Business	-CCOND
				NIC	Appointment	Date of
				MIL	Date of Cessation	50
				WIL		Nature of Interest	Position
				W///_	Details	77	GOVERNOR

as if they were you. 'Benefit' is intended to mean any benefit, even if, for example, a contract was concluded on very favourable terms for the school. school property. If a relative of yours, including a spouse or someone living with you, could benefit directly or indirectly from a decision, and you are aware of this. You should treat that person A direct pecuniary interest is where you personally may benefit from the consequences of a decision. Example: a decision to pay you compensation for damage done to your car whilst parked on

club, or charity; may benefit from the consequence of the decision. Example: The school agrees to let a football pitch to a club of which you are a member. An indirect pecuniary interest is where your employer, or partner in a partnership, or a company in which you have shares, or a body of which you are a trustee or director or member, such as a

A non-pecuniary interest is where any interest held is not financial but may include other benefits such as the enjoyment of a benefit, resource, status or service.

l certify that I have declared all beneficial interests which I or any person closely connected with me have with businesses or other organisations which may have dealings with the school

à₅-1

Date

Signed