

Sam Eathorne
Associate Principal
Beanfield Primary School

Sam was appointed to her role in January 2018. Her key focus is on maintaining the school's good status and continuing to drive improvements, student outcomes and closer links with parents and the local community. Sam joined the teaching profession in 2004 and her specialism is in primary English. She said: 'I have worked in a number of different educational settings as an English specialist and have widened my skill set by specialising in Assessment for Learning, KSI, SEN and mentoring as I progressed up the management ladder.'

Jo Fallowell
Principal
Compass Primary Academy

Jo developed CPD materials for all Peterborough primary schools during her early teaching career. She moved to Henry Gotch Primary in 2008 becoming Principal in 2013. She was instrumental in its transition, firstly to KSA Primary then, in September 2016, to its new incarnation as Compass Primary Academy. The school provides a creative curriculum in a welcoming environment and its new pre-school unit, Little Explorers, was opened in September 2017.

Jane MacDonald
Principal
Gretton Primary School

Jane MacDonald was appointed Principal of Gretton Primary Academy in March 2014. She leads a team of highly skilled staff as they work hard to provide an outstanding education for every child. Her priority is to ensure that every child reaches their full potential so that Gretton continues to be one of the highest performing primary schools in the county. She is a facilitator on the Aspirant Middle Leader Programme for the Brooke Weston Teaching School Alliance and is also Chair of the Trust's Leadership Academy Board.

Emma Goodwin
Principal
Oakley Vale Primary School

Emma has 20 years' experience in primary education. This has included working as an Education Adviser specialising in Primary Science as part of the school development team for Northamptonshire County Council. Emma was Vice Principal at Beanfield Primary from July 2011 to August 2014. She was appointed Principal at Oakley Vale Primary in September 2014 and is relishing the challenge of the exciting journey the school is on.

Carrie Norman
Principal
Peckover Primary School

Carrie Norman was appointed as Principal at Peckover Primary School in January 2014. She joined the teaching profession in 1990 and her specialism is in art, mathematics and EAL and she has recently become an LLE. She said: 'It is a privilege to teach children and is incredibly rewarding opening children's eyes to the amazing world we live in. I enjoy making school an exciting and creative place to learn. My key skills are in developing a creative curriculum. I look forward to extending Peckover to have nursery provision and working with other schools'

Secondary Principals

Pete Kirkbride
Principal
Brooke Weston Academy

Pete worked in industry for several years before a career change led him into teaching. He is a geography specialist and qualified in 2004. He has had rapid career progression and fulfilled a variety of school leadership roles. He completed the NPQH and a Master's degree in educational leadership and innovation, before taking up his first headship, as Associate Principal of Brooke Weston Academy in 2016. He also became Head of the Brooke Weston Teaching School Alliance in January 2018.

Janina Taylor
Associate Principal
Corby Business Academy

Janina joined the profession in 1999 as an English specialist and enjoyed rapid promotion through leadership positions in her previous two schools, both of which evolved through challenge. She joined CBA as Principal in 2017 and it is her first headship. She is looking forward to having impact on students and staff at all levels.

Angela Reynolds
Principal
Corby Technical School

Angela previously worked at Brooke Weston Academy as head of design and technology and senior assistant principal. She undertook the role of Principal of Corby Technical School, Brooke Weston Trust's first free school in September 2012. Since opening the school has achieved an Outstanding Ofsted judgement and it had a new extension in 2017, which doubled the size of its intake and provided additional Sixth Form accommodation.

Tony Segalini
Associate Principal
Kettering Science Academy

Tony, a history teacher, has been in the profession for 20 years and joined the Brooke Weston Trust in 2008 as an Assistant Vice Principal at Corby Business Academy. He was promoted to Vice Principal the following year with responsibility for behaviour and welfare before being seconded to Kettering Science Academy in 2014, a move that became permanent. In 2017 he became Principal and is committed to taking the school to a Good Ofsted rating, with the support of staff, students and their parents.

Richard Scott
Associate Principal
Thomas Clarkson Academy

Richard joined Thomas Clarkson Academy in September 2016 as Vice Principal and was promoted to his current role in January 2018. He said: 'Improving teaching and learning is our number one focus; by having the right teachers, making sure the curriculum is targeted and delivering high quality education from the moment students arrive in Year 7.' Richard joined the teaching profession in 1997 and he is a history specialist.
