sports awards

2019

Welcome to the 2019 Awards

I am delighted to welcome you along to this very special evening to celebrate the sporting achievements of students from across our Trust schools.

I firmly believe that outstanding Physical Education has a direct impact on whole school improvement through raising aspiration and, ultimately, achievement for our learners.

Unlike any other subject in the curriculum, Physical Education has a unique role in promoting core life values; this is essential to develop our young people's physical literacy, educating them on leading a healthy and active lifestyle.

Every young person has the right to achieve their potential within PE. To ensure we reach this goal we need to collectively share our focus, engaging and developing all pupils from our less active to our gifted and talented.

We are immensely proud of our students and are delighted that you have been able to join us this year to celebrate our students' achievements.

Whether you are a special guest, VIP, parent or teacher, I hope that you have an enjoyable evening joining with us in celebrating the best in Brooke Weston Trust sports.

Adam Whitehead

Adam is a former European and Commonwealth champion, Olympic swimmer and is now Athlete Programme Manager for the Dame Kelly Holmes Legacy Trust

At school Adam was a very average pupil and very small for his age. He never really excelled at academic subjects and was never first to be picked for teams. He took up swimming because his sister went and he did not want to stay at home on his own! As an age group swimmer Adam was very average, never winning medals until he turned 16. It took a big event for him to turn his life around and follow his dream of Olympic Gold.

Adam is a former European and Commonwealth champion and represented Great Britain for 10 years. He swam at five European Championships (gaining Gold in 1998 and Bronze in 1999 in the 200m breaststroke), two Commonwealth Games (winning Gold in 2002 for the 100m breaststroke, 2 silver medals and 1 bronze medal), and two World Championships (finishing just outside the medals, in 4th, in 1999) and became an Olympian in the year 2000.

Giving Back to Sport:

For the last five years, Adam has delivered on all the Trust's programmes, and is passionate about giving back to young people. Adam currently works as Athlete Programme Manager for the DKH Legacy Trust, where he recruits, trains and supports the athlete delivery team.

Laura Pain

Laura has already achieved so much. After an early end to a promising football career due to a medical condition she returned to sport with even greater determination and began boxing.

She is now part of the GB squad, is the reigning ENYO European Champion and has her sights set firmly on an Olympic medal.

Thank you to everyone who has come along tonight to support our young sports stars.
